

The summary report on audit of use of the state-guaranteed
World Bank loan on the Urgent Environmental Action project

The project aimed to restore the capacity of reproduction of sturgeons in Azerbaijan by building a new fish farming plant, demonstrate mercury cleanup technologies by cleaning up a mercury polluted area, test and demonstrate onshore oil production area cleanup methods by cleaning up an oil extraction site on Absheron Peninsula and improve the organizational and administrative capacities of the environmental management system in Azerbaijan.